THREE BURNED AS FIRE RUINS CAMP

Fred Burger's Cottage on Rock River East of Tower Totally Destroyed When Stove Explodes.

VISITOR LOSES HER CLOTHING

Sister of One of Occupants of Place Suffers Destruction of Clothing and Jewelry.

Three persons were burned, one seriously, a cottage was totally destroyed and hundreds of dollars worth of jewelry and clothes were consumed by the flames when a gasoline stove in a camp on Rock river, east of the Tower, exploded at 6:45 o'clock last night. Only quick work of the campers' bucket brigade saved surrounding camps.

R. M. Fick, employed at the United States Brewing company, 112 Sixteenth street, was seriously burned. His hands and arms suffered terribly from the flames. He was rushed to a doctor's office in an automobile. His sister, Miss Lena Fick, of Chicago, who had been visiting him at the camp, and A. W. Koenig, also employed at the brewing company office, were burned, but not as seriously as Mr. Fick.

The camp, owned by Fred Burger, manager of the Thomas drug store, including the furnishings, was valued at $500. Miss Fick lost everything she possessed with the exception of the clothes on her back. She had her belongings packed preparatory to returning to Chicago today. She did not have her jewels on at the time and as the occupants of the cottage were forced to flee from the building to save their lives her valuables could not be saved. Included in the jewelry which she lost was a lavalliere, a wrist watch, several rings, and a mesh bag containing some money.

Mr. Koenig and Mr. Fick lost all of their clothes and some jewelry, save that which they wore. Mr. Burger had the building insured, but the property of the occupants was not protected against damage by fire and will be a total loss.

Mr. Fick was preparing the evening meal when the explosion occurred. Miss Fick and Mr. Koenig were seated near the stove. No sooner had the explosion occurred than the interior of the cottage was enveloped in flames. With cries for help the three dashed from the burning building.

Bucket Brigade Acts.
Thanks to the "safety first" slogan of the campers a bucket brigade was on hand instantly. It was seen immediately that human effort could not save the burning building, so attention was turned to nearby camps. The camp of Jack Tighe, situated on one side of the burning structure, and the "Shoogly Shoo" camp, owned by Art Mosenfelder and Blayne Morris, situated on the other side, were not destroyed, although the point on them was burned off as a result of the heat from the burning building. The fire department was summoned and firemen assisted in saving the nearby structures.

Destruction of the camp last night is the first serious fire which has occurred at a camp on Rock river in several years.

LITTLE GIRL AIDS IN DOPE ROBBERY

Child Is Accomplice of Man and Woman Who Perpetrate Job at the Otto Evers Drug Store.

OPENS DOOR TO LET THIEF IN

Mother "Stalls" Owner in Front of Pharmacy Until Her Companion Secures Cocaine and Departs.

A four-year-old girl yesterday was intentionally a party to a daylight burglary at a Rock Island drug store in which a man and woman, presumably dope peddlers, secured a large amount of drugs.

Police today are looking for the three, but as they made a good escape and are thought to be out of town people, their apprehension is despaired of. The woman and child, apparently mother and daughter, entered the drug store of Otto Evers on Seventh avenue, near Seventeenth street, late yesterday afternoon. The woman inquired for hot water bags and Mr. Evers showed her the supply he had on hand. She questioned him closely concerning each one and stalled considerably, although at the time Mr. Evers paid only passing notice to her attitude, believing that she was perhaps unusually particular.

Meanwhile the little girl was running around the store and finally darted into the back room. While there she unhooked the screen door. Mr. Evers, busy telling the woman of the qualities of the various bags he was showing her, heard the door open and close, but thought it was a girl who lived in the neighborhood.

The woman finally told him that she saw nothing in the line he had shown her which appealed to her and she and the little girl left. When Mr. Evers went to the back end of the store he found the drugs, principally cocaine, missing. All of the "dope" he had carried in stock was gone.

Fathoms Case.

After giving the matter careful consideration he arrived at the conclusion that the woman's game is to stall the clerk in the front part of the store, the little girl's part is to see that the rear door is unlocked, and the man to step in and secure the dope. Police were notified, but the couple and little girl had a good lead on the officers.

The Evers' robbery is only one of a series which has occurred in Rock Island in the last two years in which "dope" has been the swag.

Notice to Contractors.

Bids will be received, 9 a. m., Sept. 9, 1916, for paving, with brick, Twenty-third street from Second to Fourth avenues. WILLIAM MC CONOCHIE, Mayor.
